PLAYHOUSE THEATRE GROUP, INC.

Playhouse Theatre Group Inc. presents

Playhouse on Park | West Hartford, CT July 12 - August 20, 2023

A triumphant musical about second-chances, raw talent, and hard work upon returning from war.

Bandstand

Thank you for your consideration in supporting Playhouse Theatre Group Inc. for our upcoming production of Bandstand at Playhouse on Park in West Hartford, CT from July 12 - August 20, 2023.

ABOUT THE PLAY

It's 1945. American soldiers return home to ticker-tape parades and overjoyed families, and Private First Class Donny Novitski, singer and songwriter, returns with the hope of rebuilding his life. When NBC announces a national competition to find the nation's next swing band sensation, Donny joins forces with a motley group of fellow veterans, and together they form a band unlike any the nation has ever seen. However, complicated relationships, the demands of the competition, and the challenging after-effects of war may break these musicians. Victory will require every ounce of talent, stamina, and raw nerve that these musicians can muster.

"[BANDSTAND is] both a peppy celebration of can-do spirit and a more somber exploration of what American servicemen experienced when they marched home from World War II. It's a great argument for why theater can sometimes tell a story more boldly and more viscerally."

-The New York Times

WHY NOW?

Robert Taylor and Richard Oberacker's Bandstand is a story about returning to normal life after taking an unexpected and world-shaking detour. Donny Novitski, a young World War II veteran, survives the war and navigates integrating back into civilian life. Before the war, he was a child prodigy on trajectory to have a promising music career as a piano and accordion player; but the draft had new plans for the men of his generation. Now, after years of fighting and destruction, he attempts not only to resume his life as a virtuoso but to create a band of other musical veterans in hopes of winning NBC's bandstand competition and becoming America's next famous swing band leader. From a humble and difficult beginning to a suspenseful and hopeful ending, Bandstand shines a light on perseverance, mental health challenges, diligence, and big dreams.

Unity after tragedy is hard work, and the plot of Bandstand explores that fearlessly. Every musician recruited by Donny for his second-chance swing band shares military experience. During World War II, they were all stationed in different locations and were witness to the unique horrors of a war-torn globe. Upon arrival home, each member of the band faces the challenges of PTSD and the unhealthy coping mechanisms that accompany it (alcoholism and addiction, self-isolation, survivor's guilt, loss and grief, ect.). But, regardless of coming together to win the prize money and end their post-military droughts of unemployment, Donny and the band discover much more than just fame and riches; they find the path to healing with music, friendship, and support.

As one of the co-artistic directors of Playhouse on Park, Sean Harris finds himself drawn to plays that extract light out of dark subject matter. Through Bandstand, he plans to focus on a handful of themes—the durability of the human spirit, the relationship between grief and music, group healing, the emergence of new identities after trauma, and more—all recently experienced by many of us as a result of the last three years. As a lot of us attempt to find some semblance of normalcy in our lives after several major global events, the characters of Bandstand will, too, this summer.

Every funder, sponsor, patron, member of the board, and staff member who helps us produce art that can enact change is more than greatly appreciated. Our production of Bandstand can be how our community starts the conversation.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE GROUP INC. GENERAL INFORMATION

Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. (PTG) is the parent company of Playhouse on Park, Playhouse Theatre Academy, the Connecticut Shakespeare Festival, and stop/time dance company. In 2022, Playhouse on Park entered its 14th season, despite incredible challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. As we rebuild our audience back to its pre-pandemic numbers, we're still committed to our mission of providing high-quality, accessible live theatre at affordable costs.

Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. also manages Playhouse Theatre Academy (PTA), offering educational programming for all aspects of theatre. Year-round classes and programs are taught in our locations in Hartford, West Hartford, and Simsbury. PTA also supplements theatre programming in schools throughout the state during the school day and through after school STEAM programs. We offer enrichment programs through recreational departments and senior living communities throughout the state and partner with Playhouse on Park for the Literature Alive Field Trip program.

PTG has an annual operating budget of $1.8m. During pre-covid times, approximately 50% of our operating budget came from earned revenue and the other 50% from raised revenue. Raised revenue includes individual donations, grants, sponsorship, advertising, and fundraising events and activities. Throughout Covid, earned revenue dramatically decreased and the need for raised funds increased tremendously. As audiences slowly return, and covid related expenses are still being incurred we still look to raise approximately 70% of our operating budget. Support for individual productions, such as Bandstand, is an incredible help.

In addition to our regular ticket pricing, we offer 3 Preview performances where tickets are approximately 50% below the regular show costs. We also offer deeply discounted tickets through our Lunch Time Special and Student Rush tickets. A recent survey told us that 23% of our audience members come from a household with an annual income of less than $60,000 – keeping ticket prices low is crucial to ensuring all members of our community have access to professional live theatre.

HISTORY

Playhouse on Park is managed under the direction of Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. and was founded by Tracy Flater, Darlene Zoller, and Sean Harris. Playhouse on Park opened its doors in the fall of 2009 and, with the hard work and generosity of countless volunteers, donors and our first audiences, presented a full season of plays, musicals, comedy nights, improv, children's shows, and dance showcases. Now, in its 14th Season, Playhouse on Park is West Hartford's own renowned professional theatre, offering a wide range of thought-provoking, inspiring, and entertaining productions that leave audiences often smiling, sometimes crying, and always talking about what they've just experienced. We also have a professional dance company in-residence: stop/time dance theater, that presents a full-scale production as part of our Main Stage series.
